Band Bolstered With 39 New Members

Additions to the Wartburg band this year included 39 freshmen and one transfer student. Ernest Hagen, director, stated recently that the general caliber of the new members is even better than that of last year.

Freshmen playing saxophones this year include Calvin Bergen, Clayton Kettering, Carol McCall, Judy Schlichting and Sherman Zweibig; while Carolyn Ade, Mary Jo Ketrzyn and Margaret Rausch are flute students.

Experienced Trumpeters

Seven new clarinet members are Virginia Cutler, sophomore; and freshmen Oliver Dewald, Richard Hagen, Mary Ann Mahnkopf, Helen Schwirm, Beverly Sorensen and Judy Wolf.

Jon Grubbe, Leon Johnson, Delores Lahlum and Ivan Wiedeman, all freshmen, have joined the trumpet section this year. Elfriede Seidman, and Lanny Rae Hackbarth, junior, are playing French horn in the band. New baritone members include Sandra Ann Bergstrom and Matthias and James Reever. Gary Hoge, sophomore, is trombone; Milton Gut and Jerry Schlutt improve the low notes on tuba.

3 Join Trombones

Helene Bensch, Terry Fridley and Lois Ware will play the band's French horn section while Donnie Bertram, Wayne Hubbard, Annette Schmieder, Edward Schneider and Dennis Wolter have been added to the trombones.

Barbara Beuschke and Estes Hakenson are the marching band's new majorettes.

Ag, Home Ec Speakers Will Appear Here Wed.

Richard Mathews, county agricultural extension agent, and Miss Margaret Krieg, county home economist, will be in Waverly Wednesday afternoon at 2:45 for an informal discussion with members of Fred Hubbard's conservation and field biology class.

Other classes which will attend include home economics and elementary teaching majors.

"Good Farming and Effective Soil" will be the subject of Mr. Mathews' talk, while Miss Krieg's topic will be "Better Eating Through the Young and the Kitchen." The public is invited to attend the meeting and the question and answer period following it, room 309 of Luther hall.

On Friday, Thomas M. Clay Brenner county farm bureau field man, will speak to Mr. Hubbard's class on "Farm Organization and Its Relation to Conservation."

Square Dance At 7:30 Starts Social Year Here

Initiating Wartburg's social program this year, a Student Senate sponsored square dance will be held this evening at 7:30 on the terrace in front of Luther hall.

Country squares, bunny hops and the "Honey polka" comprise the evening's entertainment, according to chairmen Gerlek Stiegler, senior, and Howie Bunting, junior. Geo Leisinger, a local Waverly farmer, will do the calling.

Everyone, dated or dateless, is invited to attend, since singles as well as couples will make up the squares.

New Chem Society Picks Dieter Pres.

The new Wartburg college affiliate chapter of the American Chemical society elected Ken Dieter, senior, as president at its organizational meeting last Thursday evening.

Other officers chosen by the group were Dale Ann Oliver, senior, vice-president; Marian Edwards, secretary; Jerry Bonde, treasurer, and Dr. A. W. Neumann, head of the chemistry department, as adviser. Miss Oliver also is chapter historian.

"This is newest student organization of undergraduate chemistry majors and chemical engineering students and is an affiliate of the A.C.S.," stated Dieter.

Campus Station To Hit Airwaves Oct. 5

KWAR, campus FM radio station, will be on the air from 5 to 9:30 p.m. Monday through Friday starting Oct. 5. The 10-watt station can be heard at 88.1 megacycles.

Program plans are as follows:

5-5:30—Dr. Fred Kramer, popular music
5:30-6—Harmony Hours
6-6:15—Sports news
6:15-6:30—Evening chaser
6:30-7—Dinner hour
7-8—KWAR hits
8-8:30—Intermission
8:30-9—Dance music
9-9:15—Morning devotions

Plans call for a new set of hours, as well as musical events in the converters in men's and women's dorms to facilitate FM reception on AM sets.

Everyone interested in joining the station crew may attend the first organizational meeting Tuesday at 4 p.m. in the Little Theater. Remaining staff vacancies will be filled at this time.

Hertel Given Chair

Dr. Elmer Hertel, of the biology department, was elected chairman of the Iowa Conference Academy of Basic Sciences for the state of Iowa last summer.

The Board of Examiners gives annual awards of conference cups to everyone planning to practice any of the healing arts.

Square Dance Set For Tonight

Fritschel, O. Abadu Chosen By Frosh

Freshmen met for the first time Wednesday night, electing Fred Fritschel as first semester president. Obi Abadu will assist him as vice-president. Jane Rungie as secretary and Jerry Schlichting as treasurer.

Other representatives to the student Senate from whose House of Stamm, Jane Dittmer and Jane Beem. Don Metzger was chosen chairman of the Freshman Talent show while Charles Bickel heads the Homecoming float committee.

Senate Appoints Student-Faculty Committees

Names of representatives appointed to the student faculty committees of the Student Senate were announced today by SSP Gene Roedemann.

Dick Hutchinson, junior, and Elaine Dieter, sophomore, were appointed to the Student Welfare committee. Hutchinson will also serve on the Public Relations committee.

Publications committee positions will be filled by Bill Curtis, senior, and Janet Deems, sophomore, editors and publishers as the Athletics campaign for by Bill Curtis, junior, and Wendell Lacmann, senior.

Secretaries Gretchen Krieger, and sophomore Ann Hackbarth will serve on the Artist Series committee.

Student Association Bill Curtis, committee members are Dave Brackon, '54, and Jerry Schlichting, junior. Ruth Adix and Jenner Gee Hsieh, juniors, will serve on the Centennial Hall Equipping committee.

Cast Told For 'Our Town;' Haver, Rogge Obtain Leads, Supporting Roles Still Open

By Fred Gonnerman

Although casting is still incomplete, major roles for Thornton Wilder's "Our Town," to be given Nov. 4, 5 and 6, were announced last night by Charles Dickson, play director and new head of the dramatics department.

Jerry Haver, junior, captured the leading role of Stage Manager, the background-setting narrator and philosopher in the production. While the women's roles of Emily and George were awarded to two newcomers to the Wartburg stage, Vaneta Rogge, sophomore transfer, and Dot Metzger, freshman.

Vocals In Supporting Roles

Strong supporting roles were handed to Dan Vocks, sophomore, who will play Mr. Webb; Emily's father, and Ruth Ann Aithon, junior, Mrs. Gibbs; Emily Webb will be played by Janice Haver, sophomore.

Also cast in major supporting roles are Betty Crenhan, freshman, as Rebecca; Claire Brunsen, junior, as Mrs. Simon; Sid Becker, senior, Mrs. Soames; Joe Nolan, sophomore, Prof. Willard, and Clarence Overby, freshman, Constable Warren.

'Cast Not Complete'

Mr. Dickson stated, "There are still quite a few smaller parts to be filled, and I'm sure all students who tried out last Thursday and Friday, besides those cast, will be needed as stage assistants."

In the backstage department, Eve Streng, senior, is in charge of lighting and Otis Hamilton, a freshman, has been appointed chief costumer for the production.

At the Wartburg Players meeting held previous to tryouts Thursday night, the following officers were elected and installed as secretary. Nerenhausen was elected president of the organization in spring.

Fortress Bill Awarded; Student Pics Will Start

Castnet for Fortress photographs was awarded to Russell Watkins, Mason City, junior, editor of seniors and two-year grads Wednesday night.

Individual pics will be taken starting Monday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. in Wartburg hall lounge. Seniors, two-year grads and all faculty pics will be snapped Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Underclass pictures are scheduled for Wednesday and Thursday all day and evening. Appointments may be made through the campus bulletin board. Pictures taken by Castnet will be no charge for underclass photos or less extra are ordered.

Engelbrecht Goes To Military Meet

Herbert C. Engelbrecht, business manager and assistant to the president, left Wednesday for Washington, D. C., to attend a meeting of the National Advisory council on Bureau of Military Personnel held in the nation's capital.

Elected to the NLC's Board of Trustees last fall, Mr. Engelbrecht was placed on the council's Armed Services committee for men in the armed forces.

Plans for the meeting included an interview with Dr. Ralph Bunche, purported candidate in Washington for secretary of the military post second bureau of the American Legion and the Marshall Museum.

Mr. Engelbrecht, who traveled recently to Greeley, Col., to address the Colorado Lutheran Synod, will return to Waverly Monday.

Admission Exams Will Be Held Soon

Both the graduate record examinations and the law school admission tests will be given next month at Wartburg college, as well as at other United States or Canadian centers. Candidates for graduate study in forms and information bulletins for both tests may be obtained from Educational Testing Service, P.O. Box 592, Princeton, N. J.

The graduate record examinations, required for admission to many graduate schools, will be held Nov. 21, Jan. 23, 1954, or April 10, 1954. Only 10 centers, including Iowa City, will be used for the April exams include a test of general and advanced.

Required for admission into leading law schools, the law school admission test will be given on Nov. 14, Feb. 20, April 10 and Aug. 14. Performance, objective questions, this exam measures verbal aptitude and reasoning ability rather than acquired information.

NPA Lists Contest For College Poetry

National Poetry association has announced its 16th annual poetry contest for high school and college students. Deadline for all entries is Nov. 5.

Although no limitation is placed on form or theme, short poems are preferred. Entries should be typed or printed on a separate sheet and must bear the name and address of the author plus the college attended.

Manuscripts should be forwarded to National Poetry association, 3210 Selby avenue, Los Angeles 34, Calif.

Outfly Surprises Veterans, Seasons Frosh, Stiffens Profs

By B. F. Mirty

"What's the idea?" Sam Loka, Egghead, everyone knows Outfly won't be full mint—sticks!"

"Hey, those guys won't get up. Someone bring some firecrackers and water. Come on, let's go get the freshmen!"

It was a cool Thursday morning, but no one froze as the activity gained momentum and animosity in the traditional fantasie duringe.

After serveading for President Becker's Outfly permission, freshmen snake-danced down Brenner avenue for a pep rally. With five minutes to reach the Little Theater they bended knees at the run.

Then the scene moved to Meyer's for the traditional Outfly wings, passport to the chow line. But with initiation exercises over for the day everyone looked for the fun grounds to enjoy one of the best Outfties in years.

Some of the upperclassmen missed the old spat by a degree, but even the added advantages of recreational facilities and a beautiful, Indian summer day, who could complain?

One freshman girl even exclaimed, "Only two Outflies a year? I think we should have more!"

Lacking no love of games, students hurried to participate in their favorite sport. Whether it was bean-in platoon touch football with four games on the field at one time, softball, shuffleboard, tennis or hand-holding on a blanket, everyone thoroughly enjoyed himself.

Faculty members set aside their tests and lecture notes and brought their families out for a day of relaxation. Some of the profs even participated in some of the games. Dr. Fred Kramer, who sponsored the Charles Dickson of the speech department, as both fans were seemingly opposed to Defense Fred Hubbard of the biology department.

Besides aching muscles and a few blisters, the only casualties of the day were Roger Hennings, senior, who suffered broken bones and a deep cut across the eyebrow, and freshman Loella Wagoman, who received a pulled tendon of the left arm. Maybe Cupids' arrow struck a few times, since several clinged backfires were seen freshmanling.

Following supper, students gathered on North field around a bonfire for a songfest and freshman entertainment. After the movie in Knuths gymnatorium they weenily strolled back to the dorms, discussing the outing in the full-moon shift as the traditional Outfly ended.

"Sure was a good Outfly," Merle Funk, sophomore, commented.

"Certainly caught everybody off guard, too," voiced Pete Brenner, senior.

"A wonderful day," Noreen Morton, freshman, added, "but, oh, those classes tomorrow!"

Bensied freshmen make like ducks in the Outfly breakfast line as whip-cracking sophomore Tiny Sonnemaking applies the leather to keep the line moving.

McCarthyism's In The Church

Been in any good political arguments lately? If you have, you've undoubtedly heard the word "McCarthyism" being bandied about along with spirit, vigor and vicious adjectives more than once. Uncle Joe, if he's done anything, has succeeded in adding a new noun to the already copious political vocabulary.

But when you look the matter over a little more closely, you will find that McCarthyism carries connotations far beyond the field of politics. It's become a shibboleth, a word for any action carrying unreasonable threats, hasty judgements and holier-than-thou criticisms.

But what, you may justifiably ask, does McCarthyism have to do with religion, and here—in our college and church setups? Actually, on the surface, the answer appears to be "nothing."

It's always best to peek underneath the surface, though, so let's do just that. Leaders all over the country have been accused of catering to communism—for that matter, so have the Reds. The truth or falsity of statements are justified or not is, for the moment at least, beside the point.

What really matters is that the crooked fingers of the investigators have done a great deal of damage to the time-honored rights of laws and individual rights. Followers of McCarthyism have accused whole groups of people on skimpy evidence gathered on a few individuals. They have ruined innocent people's lives by twisting facts and theories to fit their own narrow-minded schemes.

Now, while all you advocates of McCarthyism remain and rant in defense of Our Boy Joe, let's look at the situation among some groups not so well-known nationally, but even more dangerous to our church and school.

Maybe it's a case of scapegoat-beatscapegoat, but some groups have found inside the church have started to use McCarthyism as one of their own weapons. These people have fixed ideas on what they think is right and what wrong concerning man's moral laws and practices. Their fixed opinions hold a viewpoint opposite to theirs, begin to apply Uncle Joe's obnoxious techniques.

They scream "That's not Christian" in the same manner that McCarthyites bowl "That's not American," and not right refuse to hear the other side of the story, but deny their opponents a right to express it and call them names for doing so.

There will always be dissension in the church over certain points concerning man's moral law and human institutions—that is, as long as mankind is in power. But when as soon as a minority group starts to press to have its own ideas accepted as the ONLY ideas, they are guilty of the kind of McCarthyism accused in infiltrating places it should not—the church and its colleges.

Are We Living Christian Failures?

By Ken Truckenbrod

How do we live our life on here on earth

How do we live our life on campus? Do we talk of living a Christian life with a lot of fervor? Do we tell others about living Christ-exemplifying and then when we witness with our own lives, do we fall short by far? Are we to have confessed with firm convictions?

I am firmly convinced that one should refer his or her faith in Christ by the life he or she lives. It is my conviction that a Christian shows and not only the words which we utter.

Let's ask ourselves this: Are we living a life of high-sounding confessions of faith only, or are we confessing our faith from the heart by actually living it in thought, word and deed? Are we really Christ-like Christians? Are we WORDS or LIFE?

DOCKET DOPE

By Sid Curtis

"Silde some tables together, have another coke and time for the joke box."

With this words the Student Senate prepared for its regular meeting last Monday night. Right on the minimal atmosphere of the Den. Right delay while some of the labsomness struggled to get their minds able to call the meeting to order and get the affair off the 8:30 Inchalmes.

Don't get the wrong idea! We like to do business and be efficient, for shall we say the interested looks of our fellow students on Monday meetings in the Den was the best build in a long time. A conspicuous place to notice decrease in just such a thing and often is called danger at schools that have meetings. Our meeting of late will be announced by the CHIEF call, and our doors is always open. One is until the Monday meeting.

And Student Senate meetings are fun. Take Monday night's example. Most of the routine business was taken care of in the short special meeting the previous week, so the main business was simply the agenda for the student body meeting.

But interspersed with the formation of the agenda were accusations, refutations, denouncing and arguments concerning everything from checking out football games to writing the column for the TRUMPET. No items were left out, however, and the business was soon taken care of with time enough left to discuss projects, problems and future business.

STAFF SQUEAKS

THE SPIRIT of insurrection has made hold the perplexed horde of Wartburg Players. Affairs of neighborness bearing themes of revolution hanging in trees can only one thing. Kangaroo Kort is on the way!

GUFFLY IS THE ONLY day of the year that a single person is wrong before the roosters. Anything to do with the conception of male students, there's a nice flock of ewes scampering around the campus.

A WORD in favor of the Municipal field for Guffly grounds. Not that it would be an ideal place for those who have to walk, it was also nominated for Arbor Day, Mayday and its cadence. The only thing that is in the way is the fact the field still isn't that far away!

MORE PROFESSING on campus than ever before. Even on the library floor of Luther hall is such a happy event as it permits a throat competition with all other noises in the building. Perhaps the way to get students down to the basement.

SO YOU'VE BEEN jumped into a shindeller called a conference with 50 other scholars? Maybe you've been to a Student Senate meeting? Then you've been to a Wartburg Press Club meeting. Or a combination of the three—in one or more but the professor.

"Hockey," said the professor, "is the only game where you get hurt before sign up for basketball."

Hockey isn't hard to please. He signed up for a different course.

"Football," said the professor, "is the only game where you get hurt before you start."

"Hockey," said the professor, "is the only game where you get hurt before you start."

He enters a different course.

For 2 Cents I'd . . .

By Jerry Haver

I was deep in slumberland Tuesday morning when Jerry Rintze pounded on my door shouting "Get up—it's Guffy! I build over because it was just a gold to get me to breakfast. Then somebody started a rumor that Wartburg got rid of Guffy. "Who," I asked myself, "has shetched in the fiddly-winks game this time?"

Then I remembered I found out it really wasn't true. Congratulations and all that rot to the Guffy committee for a well-planned day of fun and stuff moronics.

I've finally figured out why no one ever attends class meetings. Wednesday night the freshmen had their Frosh meeting and afterwards they were escorted to various rooms to do recital tasks. Among the things they were up to were: Blocks against class meetings which apparently last throughout college careers.

Eve Reinsche found out the other evening that Iowa laws are enforced. He was at the dorm in shorts and sandals and was chatting with a girl on the porch when a police car drove by. He trotted down to the refreshment stand and asked for some ice. Now how is one supposed to know about—the lady behind the counter demanded that he show proof of being 21.

Knights Hit St. Olaf

By Dick Lynch

Still looking for their first victory of the 1953 season, Wartburg's football forces meet St. Olaf in Northfield, Minn., at 2 this afternoon.

If scouting reports are accurate the Knights will have their hands full against the Oles of the Midwest conference. Bernie Gerhardson, a first-string all-conferer last year when St. Olaf tumbled Knox, 39-19, reports the team as "big, fast and tough." In football language that spells trouble for Wartburg.

Knights Face Veterans

Knights will be facing a veteran line averaging over 190 pounds and a fleet set of fleet running, versatile backs, Opperman's unencouraging report indicated.

Talk around the Knight camp still centers on injuries. Ron Wegener and Gary Gruhn have shown only slight improvement and are being counted out of Coach Norm Johnson's starting line. Guard Chuck Schnase stringed his knee in last week's loss to Augsburg and will be used sparingly this afternoon. Other casualties are guard Ray Bernhard and tackle Al Limberg, who are doubtful starters.

Pointer Right Foot

One bright spot is the return to right half of Gordie Kepliker, rugged Marion, Wis., senior, who has come back from the hospital wars and is ready to go, after only a week of practice.

With Kepliker at the backfield, Stan Sittleson will be shifted to fullback, replacing Dick Lehmann. Vic Pritchard will hold down the quarterback slot and Chuck Rose will be running at left half.

Neal Pederson, the Junior sparkplug from Beloit, Kansas, is a team which promises to be equally as tough as the Oles. The Norsemen have topped Carleton Point, 27 to 6, and Northfield (Wis.) Teachers, 27 0.

Here are this afternoon's tentative starting lineups:

Wartburg	Pos.	St. Olaf
Schoning, Carey	LE	N. Olson
Wattmann, Hank	LT	Quam
Revella, Paul	LG	Ostroff
Keister, Bob	C	Fichter
Rishoum, Ed	RG	D. Olson
Deacow, Bill	RT	Stolen
Llemohn, Wendy	RE	Gustafson
Pritchard, Vic	QB	Hallmann
Rose, Chuck	LH	Ole
Kepliske, Gordy	RH	Werdahs
Rildeson, Gary	FB	Johnson

Time and place: 2 p.m., Manitou Field, Northfield, Minn.

Coaches: Wartburg—Norm Johansen, Ax Bundgaard and Wilmot Fruehling.

St. Olaf—Ade Christenson, Frank Wiggleworth and Mark Almli.

'Murals Under Way; North Hall, GH II Gain Opening Wins

By Ken Streck

Wartburg's '53-'54 intramural program got under way Thursday as North Hall and Grossmann II scudded out early victories over Grossmann III and Grossmann I. Both games were played on the Knights' field.

Ron Ambaugh, with the aid of some fine clutch pitching by Eric Hemmingsen, paced the land in the first inning and went on to score the Grossmann II 18-8 thumping batting honors were Cole Wilkenson of North Hall and John Delnes of Grossmann III. Both smashed two-run circuit clouts.

Featuring lusty hitting and sharp defensive play, Grossmann II breezed to an easy 13-3 victory over first floor. Sparking the winners' attack was Larry Beckley, who homered with two on base in the second inning, and Ken Reinke, who connected for the first grand slam of the fall season.

Softball action for next week is as follows:

Sept. 29 Wicthens Annex vs. Bundgaard Annex
Grossmann I vs. North Hall

Oct. 1 Grossmann II vs. Wicthens Annex
Grossmann III vs. Bundgaard Annex

I'm Not The Coach But . . .

By Sterk Wreelism

So I'm not the coach—so what? I still think a lot of good—well, at least enjoyable—football took place last Saturday evening out at Waverly Municipal field. Maybe it was the perfect football weather that set me in such a state of bliss. Or maybe it was just the fact that I heart Outby was coming.

Look through this issue of the paper — look thoroughly. I defy you to find one column which neglects to use Outby as a source of copy! So why be different?

You say there's another football game today? St. Olaf, eh? Well, as Coach is said the other day, "Once we get past St. Olaf and Luther, the hardest part of the season, comparatively speaking, will be done with."

The two teams out of Norskies have it this year—there's no getting around that gruesome fact. On a radio broadcast over KXEL Thursday night do went out on a mighty dumb limb by choosing the Lutherans as chief contenders for Iowa conference glory. But that's next week—today's game is every—I think I'll go shake an awkward leg at the square dance and forget football just for the weekend, anyway.

Well, can't overuse the rest of this column discussing the various athletic angles of rectangular-romping loquoredoing to you people not geometrically inclined. There's always intramurals—or are there?

That's a moot question. Are there intramurals? It's a hard query to answer. Take for instance the situation on hand as softball activity started Thursday afternoon.

First floor was to engage second floor at 4 p.m. But where was everyone? By 4:30 there were almost enough to start the game legally, so the game started. But where was Isaac Walton? Where was the entire underskiff? Where was the catcher's mask? Where was the umpire?

For the answer to all these pertinent problems of the day, be sure to glance at this column next week as you line your wastebasket with the TRUMPET.

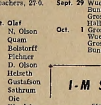
By Jim Seiler

A few gleams of hope were added to the dismal preseason picture painted by Wartburg turf generals as the gridiron Knights dropped their opener to the Augsburg Auggies, 14-12, last Saturday night.

Although surpassed in almost every department statistics wise, the Jomen showed some measure of spirit and a will to win. However, this could not compensate for the talented pitching arm of Ed Wilke, Augsburg quarterback, who hurled 26 aerials, completing 10. White hit his receivers on 50 per cent of his shocking endeavors.

Bright spots in the Wartburg offense and defense were the brilliant play of Wendy Llemohn, tenacious end, field general Ted Pritchard, and fullbacks Stan Rittleson and Chuck Rose.

Flagged by the usual first-game jitters and blunders, the Knight eleven played plausible and yet acceptable ball for an opening game. The patches of good play—particularly the quick thinking of Chuck Schnasen on the Knights' second touchdown play—provided the fans with something to look forward to in future vain contests.



Halfback Charlie Rose finally hauls down Bill Stewart, Augsburg freshman fullback, after he picks up yardage through the line in last week's grid opener against the Minneapolis Auggies on Waverly field.

Moving in on the play are Wartburg's right end, Larry Schoening, and number 42 for Augsburg, Bob Snattrup.

Authentic Knight's Armor Guards Gym

By Sid Curtis

In an effort to give Wartburg Castle (Waverly style) the greatest authenticity possible, a complete set of knight's armor, wearable and sturdy, has been procured for the college by Lad gym's senior class.

Arriving during the middle of August, the armor was made to order by Emma Lukes, chief craftsman at Stuttgart, Germany. Constructed entirely of light metal alloy, it will weigh about 40 pounds. It was purchased for $250 plus transportation.

Mrs. Margaret Blaney, sister of Norm Fintel, public relations head here, did most of the contact work for the project. Since her soldier husband is stationed near Stuttgart, she was able to supervise the construction personally.

Consisting of 14 separate pieces plus accessories (leggings and shield), the armor can be worn with ease by a man of any size or people, within reasonable limits. Fintel designs it to have part in the Wartburg float display for the Fall Country Fair held in Waverly during the summer.

Next acquisition of the stylish "sardine can" will be Eric Bodenmann, student body president, who will lead the Homecoming parade with new flourish and authenticity this year.

Now perched on the radio ball racing in the parish hall in Basel, the suit will remain in the position to supervise all the name-sake basketball games and wrestling meets during the coming winter.

Jack Bostrack, a senior last year, models the new outfit.

Want GH Lounge?

Any organization wishing to use the Grossmann hall lounge and facilities must make arrangements with the lounge committee at least two weeks before the date desired, Grossmann dorm council announced this week.

Schroeder Engaged

Jean Schroeder, sophomore two year teacher from Grenville, became engaged recently to Don Norwest, air force man from Kiester who is stationed at Youngstown, Ohio.

Tales Issues Call!

Castle Tales, campus literary magazine, has issued a call for original material to prose and poetry. Freshmen interested will be called upon to write selections in their communications skills classes.

All material is to be handed in as soon as possible to Ted Fritschel, Jim Sexter, seniors; Jerry Hovey, Darrel Schwartz, juniors; or Loren Mankestad, faculty adviser, for preliminary judging.

Tri-Beta Picks Wheels

Campus chapter of Beta Beta Beta, national honorary biological society, recently elected new officers for the coming year.

Sid Curtis, senior, was elected president; Mrs. Evelyn Bass, senior, secretary-treasurer, and Lee Beck, junior, historian. Wade Gill Rose, senior, was elected president last spring.

Phebes Visit Hospitals

Continuing a new phase of service this Fall, the Phebes, organization for parish workers, has joined Chi Rho in a program of hospital visitation in Waverly and Wartburg. Last Sunday marked the initial visitation of the future pastors and parish workers for this school year.

Prof Gets Collection

Through the efforts of Dr. Leo Fuhr, biology, the department has secured a collection of amphibians and reptiles during the past summer.

Consisting of approximately 200 species, the collection is one of the most representative in the state, according to Dr. Fuhr, who returned his specimens with the cooperation of Kansas State college, Manhattan, Kan.
